MISCELLANEOUS

- a) Minimum attendance percentage required for promotion to next grade is 75% during an academic year.
- b) 3 grace marks will be awarded in total for the purpose of promotion.
- c) Extremely genuine cases of absence from examinations shall be decided by the Head of the Institution.
- d) No child shall be expelled on academic grounds.
- e) The Heads of educational institutions may not detain students to appear as "Regular Candidate" in any of the annual examination conducted by FDE or FBISE unless they fall short of the required percentage of attendance during the academic year. Instead of treating the students as "Private Candidate" on the basis of their performance in pre-board examination, Heads of the Institutions may chart out a comprehensive plan to address the shortcomings of students.
- f) Students obtaining overall pass percentage in Middle Standard Examination shall have unrestricted choice to opt for either Science Group or Humanities Group or Technical Group; however, the decision of assigning desired group shall be determined on the basis of availability of the slots and merit in the respective section.
